

Copyright

The AACS National Competition Manual is copyrighted material. Please adhere to the following.

1. The CD that you purchased is for use of your school only. Other schools must purchase their own CDs.
2. You cannot burn additional copies of the CD. If your school needs access to more than one copy of the CD, you need to purchase additional CDs accordingly.
3. You may copy the digital file or print the manual or portions of the manual for use within your school. For example, you may copy the digital file on the principal's computer, the secretary's computer, and the competition coordinator's computer. You may print the art rules and judging forms for your art teacher or a competitor.
4. You may print judging forms for your school to use as needed.